Fall Game Field Assignments: Sheila Castro should have draft fall game field assignments emailed tonight. Each team should have a single point to interface to Sheila. Final schedule is planned a few days later. In the fall, once final game schedule is distributed, there is a $50 penalty plus cost of referees to cancel and reschedule a game (when not due to field closure, e.g. rain).

Fields: City of Palo Alto took back El Camino practice field on Monday and Wednesday. Fury moves to Greer 1 on Monday and JLS2 on Wednesday. JV can share Greer 3 with Quake on Wednesday.

Treasurer Report: One team still owes $200 club dues.

Other: Kevin Coleman club outreach program group met on August 19 to discuss communication enhancements (e.g. website) and common policies (e.g. uniforms) that may benefit all teams.

In response to misleading advertisements for Class 1 teams the Redwood League website has created FAQ to clarify its position. There will be a fall 'quasi-Class 1' U13/14 Redwood Division operating under constraints.

Thank-you Clara Chang (JV) for serving as the Stanford Soccer Club (new) registrar (2 year commitment).

District Cup application date for U13 and younger is September 19.

Mandatory meeting for Redwood League teams is September 2 and Abronzino League teams is September 3. A representative from each team must be present. Check website for location.

The Stanford Soccer Club representative to Redwood League is John Sanchez (Tsunami).

Next Meeting: Next scheduled meeting is September 22, 2003, Cubberley Room A3. There being no further business to come before the meeting, the meeting was adjourned.
